the sins committed after Baptism are forgiven.

Q How does the Sacrament of Penance remit sin, and restore to the soul the friendship of God?

A The Sacrament of Penance, remits sin, and restores the friendship of God, to the soul, by means of the absolution of the priest.

Q How do you know that the priest has the power of absolving from the sins committed after Baptism?

A I know that the priest has the power of absolving from the sins committed after Baptism, because Jesus Christ granted that power to the priests of his Church, when he said:

"Receive ye the Holy Ghost, Whoso sins you shall forgive, they are forgiven them, whose sins you shall retain, they are retained."

Q How do the priests of the Church exercise the power of forgiving sins?

A The priests of the Church exercise the power of forgiving sins by hearing the confession of sins, and granting pardon for them, in the name of God and in his name.

Q What must we do to receive the Sacrament of Penance worthily?

A To receive the Sacrament of Penance worthily we must do five things:

- 1 We must examine our conscience.
- 2 We must have sorrow for our sin.
- 3 We must make a firm resolution never more to offend God.
- 4 We must confess our sins to the priest.
- 5 We must accept the penance which the priest gives us.

Q What is the examination of conscience?

A The examination of conscience is an earnest effort to recall to mind all the sins we have committed since our last worthy confession.

Q How can we make a good examination of our conscience?

A We can make a good examination of conscience, by seeking to memory the commandments of God, the precepts of the Church, the seven capital sins, and the particular duties of our state in life, to find out the sins we have committed.

Q What should we do, before beginning the examination of conscience?

A Before beginning the examination of conscience, we should pray to God, to give us light to know our sins, and grace to detest them.

Q What is contrition, or sorrow for sin?

A Contrition, or sorrow for sin, is a hatred of sin, and a true grief of the soul for having offended God, with a firm purpose of sinning no more.

Q What kind of sorrow should we have for our sins?

A The sorrow we should have for our sins, should be interior, supernatural, universal, and sovereign.

Q What do you mean by saying that our sorrow should be interior?

A When I say that our sorrow should be interior, I mean that it should come from the heart, and not merely from the lips.

Q What do you mean by saying that our sorrow should be supernatural?

A When I say that our sorrow should be supernatural, I mean that it should be prompted by the grace of God, and excited by motives, which spring from faith and not by merely natural motives.

Q What do you mean by saying that our sorrow should be universal?

A When I say that our sorrow should be universal, I mean that we should be sorry for all our mortal sins without exception.

Q What do you mean when you say that our sorrow should be sovereign?

212
A When I say that our sorrow should be sovereign, I mean that we should grieve more for having offended God than for any other evil that can befall us.

Q Why should we be sorry for our sins?

A We should be sorry for our sins, because sin is the greatest of evils, and an offense against God our Creator, Preserver, and Redeemer, and because it shuts us out of Heaven, and condemns us to the eternal pains of Hell.

Q How many kinds of contrition are there?

A There are two kinds of contrition; perfect contrition and imperfect contrition.

Q What is perfect contrition?

A Perfect contrition is that which fills us with sorrow and hatred for sin, because it offends God, who is infinitely good in himself and worthy of all love.

Q What is imperfect contrition?

A Imperfect contrition, is that by which we hate, what offends God, because by it we lose Heaven, and deserve Hell; or because sin is so hateful in itself.

Q Is imperfect contrition sufficient for a worthy confession?

A Imperfect contrition is sufficient for a worthy confession, but we should endeavor to have perfect contrition.

Q What do you mean by a firm purpose of sinning no more?

A By a firm purpose of sinning no more, I mean a fixed resolve, not only to avoid all mortal sin, but also its near occasions.

Q What do you mean by the near occasions of sin?

A By the near occasions of sin, I mean all the persons, places, and things, that may easily lead us into sin.

Season Thirtieth On Confession

Q What is Confession?

A Confession is the telling of our sins, to a duly authorized priest, for the purpose of obtaining forgiveness.

Q What sins are we bound to confess?

A We are bound to confess all our mortal sins, but it is well also, to confess our venial sins.

Q Which are the chief qualities of a good confession?

A The chief qualities of a good confession are three: It must be humble, sincere, and entire.

Q When is our Confession humble?

A Our Confession is humble, when we accuse ourselves of our sins, with a deep sense of shame and sorrow, for having offended God.

Q When is our Confession entire?

A Our Confession is entire, when we tell the number and kind of our sins, and the circumstances which have their nature

Q What should we do, if we cannot remember the number of our sins?

A If we cannot remember the number of our sins, we should tell the number as nearly as possible, and say how often we may have sinned in a day, a week, or a month, and how long the habit or practice has lasted.

Q Is our Confession worthy if without our fault, we forget to confess a mortal sin?

A If without our fault we forget to confess a mortal sin, our Confession is worthy, and the sin is forgiven, but it must be told in Confession if it again comes to our mind.

Q Is it a grievous offense, wilfully, to conceal a mortal sin in Confession?

A It is a grievous offense wilfully to conceal a mortal sin in Confession, because we thereby tell a lie to the Holy Ghost, and make our Confession worthless.

Q What must he do, who has wilfully concealed a mortal sin in Confession?

A He who has concealed a mortal sin in Confession, must not only confess it, but must also repeat all the sins he has committed since his last worthy Confession.

Q Why does the priest give us a penance after Confession?

A The priest gives us a penance after confession, that we may satisfy God, for the temporal punishment due to our sins.

Q Does not the Sacrament of Penance remit all punishment due to sin?

A The Sacrament of Penance remits the eternal punishment due to sin, but it does not always remit the temporal punishment, which God requires as satisfaction for our sins.

Q Why does God require a temporal punishment as a satisfaction for sin?

A God requires a temporal punishment as a satisfaction for sin, to teach us the great evil of sin, and to prevent us from falling again.

Q Which are the chief means by which we satisfy God for the temporal punishment due to sin?

A The chief means by which we satisfy God for the temporal punishment due to sin are:

Prayer,
Fasting,

Almsgiving, all spiritual and corporal works of mercy, and the patient suffering of the ills of life.

Q Which are the chief spiritual works of mercy?

A The chief spiritual works of mercy are seven:

To admonish the sinner,

Q Which are the first things we should tell the priest in Confession?

A The first thing we should tell the priest in Confession, are the time of our last Confession, and whether we said the penance and went to Holy Communion.

Q After telling the time of our last Confession, and Communion what should we do?

A After telling the time of our last Confession, and Communion, we should confess all the mortal sins we have since committed, and all the venial sins we may wish to mention.

Q What must we do, when the confessor asks us questions?

A When the confessor asks us questions, we must answer them truthfully and clearly.

Q What should we do after telling our sins?

A After telling our sins, we should listen with attention to the advice which the confessor may think proper to give.

Q How should we end our Confession?

A We should end our Confession by saying, "I also accuse myself of all the sins of my past life, telling if we choose one or several of our past sins."

Q What should we do while the priest is giving us absolution?

A While the priest is giving us absolution, we should from our heart renew the Act of Contrition.

Q What is an Indulgence.

A An Indulgence, is the remission in whole, or in part, of the temporal punishment due to sin.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

The Angelical Salutation

Hail Mary full of grace! the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

Hail Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

The Apostles Creed.

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, creator of Heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ, His only Son; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell; the third day He arose again from the dead. He ascended into Heaven, sitteth at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Confession

I confess to Almighty God, to Blessed Mary ever Virgin, to Blessed Michael the Archangel, to Blessed John the Baptist, to the Holy Apostles Peter and Paul, and to all the Saints, that I have sinned exceedingly in thought, word and deed, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault.

Therefore I beseech Blessed Mary ever Virgin, blessed Michael the Archangel, blessed John the Baptist, the Holy Apostles Peter and Paul, and all the Saints, to pray to the Lord our God for me.

May the Almighty God have mercy on me, and forgive me my sins and bring me to everlasting life. Amen.

May the Almighty and merciful God grant me Pardon, absolution, and remission of all my sins. Amen.

An Act of Faith.

O my God, I firmly believe that thou art one God in three Divine persons, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. I believe that thy Divine Son became man, and died for our sins, and that He will come to judge the living and the dead I believe these and all the truths which the Holy Catholic Church teaches, because I have been renewed them, who cannot neither deceive, nor be deceived.

An Act of Desire

O my God! seeing in thy infinite goodness and goodness, I hope to obtain pardon for my sins, the help of thy grace, and life everlasting, through the merits of Jesus Christ, my Lord and Redeemer.

An act of Love

O my God! I love thee above all things, with my whole heart and soul, because thou art all good and worthy of all love. I love my neighbor as myself for the love of Thee. I forgive all who have injured me, and ask pardon of all whom I have injured.

An Act of Contrition.

O my God! I am humbly sorry for having offended thee, and I detest all my sins, because I dread the loss of heaven and the pains of hell, but most of all because they offend Thee my God, who art all good, and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve, with the help of thy grace, to confess my sins, to do penance, and to amend my life.

The Blessing before meals

✠ Bless us, O Lord! and bless thy gifts, which we are about to receive from thy bounty, through Christ our Lord. Amen

Grace after meals

✠ We give thee thanks for all thy benefits, O Almighty God, who livest and reignest forever, and may the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen

My name is Anne Armbury leader of the main army of child rebels, under my assistants Angelina Armbury, Kenneth Cary, and Mary Stanck who lost her leg at the fight at Sawndale.

I have received warnings that I am in danger of assassination but as horrible as it is to be murdered in cold blood I defy my enemies before God to do it.

Since I copied the collection, I am now planning to advance my army of 1000 rebels, all eighteen years old against Andream. I thought I am only ten, I am able to lead them and have do so, and will do so again. I am the full width of the manuscript as far as it goes of the battles raging with the Glandelinians and the rebels at the child action places and will have them published as soon as I can.

My chief assistant Angelina Armbury and darling sister at that, has told me about the Varrian girls, who are doing their best to help me in my cause. If could they find them, and speak to them it would be well.

I have heard that they are of dazzling beauty, both in features and ways, good as saints and fierce and, loving toward every

The battle of Gloria is the main warring. I thought victory in the frightful battle Idanson - left wing of 10,553,000 men was almost entirely destroyed within four hours by Federal attack where onslaught was mightier than that of a tidal wave sweeping into a wind-swept town. The main commanding general was killed, the field was in the hands of the enemy, and it was all that Idanson could do to restore the line of battle along the Mc Hollister Run section, where this terrible tragedy happened.

This was the most surprising battle that had ever raged in Idanson history. It was fought with Idanson army on the one side and the Federal army on the other. The Idanson army was defeated and the Federal army was victorious.

I spoke of the fact that I had with her I didn't couldn't believe that she was could become so in conceivably furious as it did. It retained a moderate fury, from Crowley to Puerimay, denouncing picture them gone. War seemed to achieve battles nothing in fury at all.

From came the frightful carnage at Bristol-Loc station, with the Christians badly and shamefully beaten. War stationed from then till the battles of Apple Orchard and Angeline's. War involved with demanded fury, I mean it still furiously. Came the horrible battles of the Indian Run, Codomin, St. Lawrence, and many others, in fact the war became so horrible that within the first years of it scores of millions had fallen.

And what was the cause of it all? The loss? The size of armies? Or the stubbornness of the haughty gladiatorial generals?
 The second and third years of the war was extremely bloody, Calaveras Abraham, Angeline's Gladi China may, even Protestant were bathed in ocean of blood, from battles of indescribable fury. Evangeline's cause was one of the bloodiest battles of the war as was the Calvernia massacre. In these battles at Mansarred, the nine days massacre the battle at Red Crane, and then followed the mightiest conflicts the world ever saw; Big Gorkmool, Madge Towns, Joe-sue-Dee-Bach, San Oaks Big Idella, Stamcklin or Catter Rums in nine Pines, a battle with many names, Fils Catter Normy Sam, Munsckman, Mc Usture Rum, and of the stupendous battles at Bay Bepko, four battles at the Mollister River slrenching the ground in torrents of blood, battles of clamorous at Barnemelomson, Jerome Vincum, Jerome Tennes, whose cities were wrecked and in of all in the four third year of the war the battle of Sunbeam Creek where the losses of both sides were so severe that they could never be accurately estimated.

Frightful massacres of priests nuns religious of all sects, many were women and children were gutted, torn from limb to limb by the drink crazed infuriated Glandelinian L'vocation and devastation spread throughout Calvernia, from South-west to North east, to the distance of two thousand miles.

choicards of miles of forests were consumed by oceans of fire, and the rest of towns and cities wrecked by the enemy, and burned by the finest fires and by and extermining 18,000 are the known cities and towns ^{perished} annihilated or destroyed during the three years of war alone.

All this alone I say to the disappearance of the Chimering picture. Apparently it was done by a Christian, so why not they suffer for the loss.

The longer I prayed for its return, the more the prayer seemed unanswered. In the meantime the war again heated slightly.
What was the meaning?

A month till only then what I observed. All Saints day, fourth year of the war was celebrated in blood, and wholesale devastation. Towns and cities were wrecked or totally destroyed, by the hundred one, from the effects of the concussion, and shell fire of the mightiest battle ever waged yet.

That was Gloria or Chimburgs Run.

Not even the power of all of the oceans briny water, mighty as its surging tide caused by a millionhurricane could have the inconceivable fury of the three hundred gleams human intelligences.

It began at Hornet along the the Holles River. Vanu's Right wing overwhelmed by Federals toward of onslaughts was practically wiped out. Black Smith's lines, coming to the rescue was disordered Hansen's the main commander was killed, the whole military wounded, and a hundred other generals were killed or wounded.

General Vanu's having his center overwhelmed by re-forcements sent 500,000 men against Federals and caused him after being in return threw with him for the rest of the fatal morning.

Seven times 70,000,000 Glendelium's crushed themselves against Vanu's with with the result of 500,000 men. Thus the battle raged simultaneously at Gallies Run, the Whittles Run, Luribing Run, and at Colley and Ham's where mighty waves of Glendelium troops charged into a sea of death and destruction only to be repulsed with the most fright ful losses.

A good part of the battle raged at Chamberlain, Ophelia and at Sacramento.

Coronation ridge was one of the worst scenes when after the Christians captured it after two impetuous charges the fox tried with might and main to recapture it General Vanu himself with his brother general Hansen Vanu held his ground on the Vanu hills, finally winning back the last charge of the fox.

It was General Whitehead's Zimmerman's cohorts that enabled Vanu to hold his ground against great odds, until General Vanu came to the support with his great army only to lose against the Glendelium Glendelium one of the greatest of battles the battle raged two days ending as a draw.
Many battles came even after this, especially in the during the fourth year of the war. During the fourth year of the war despite the loss of the Christian picture the Christians have seemed to have more success in the war, as General Mortley, Hanna and Vanu Whitehead, and also the Whittles field, but nevertheless it only a little before the storm of defeat came.
There is left only in half a year more for them and if it is not recovered before then see page 282 next page. which is noted by the battle of the Whittles.

continued from why standing and the two companions enemies of the Nivian girls

I have known the Nivian girls since the great war began.
 Though I have not seen all the experiences which they had gone through, nevertheless I know Gerald Stanning and his two companions.
 The names of his two companions, Jackson Dugan, and Fredrick Douders.

Though I am English
 I am spy, and the three boys knew it. They do not attempt to cause my capture, but they strive with might and main to capture Violet and her sisters.

And why?
 I mean, his two sons and the other Nivian general have poisoned their minds against the poor little girls, by their wicked lies. I fear that the three boys had been captured by the Englishmen, and then, under the influence of the Nivian girls have been poisoned. from prison, and then, under the influence of the Nivian girls girls. Stanning told me one day when I saw him among the other prisoners, that he and his companions, doubted some of the stories of the Nivian girls which they told him, and so they really suffered as they said he sees no proofs of it.

He and his companions unknowingly had caused most of the suffering
 of the Nivian girls
 because he and they had the opinion that Violet and her sisters were enemies of everyone because to even their own beloved country and its people.

Stanning remembered the day of Capture, when he had met one of the Nivian girls during the forest fire, and with friendly intent kissed her on the right cheek.

Violet told me a good deal of the life of the one who was kissed and how she felt over his conduct which he showed afterward.

It was even after eulennia when through her betrayal of standing and her two companions Violet and her sisters were carried off by Glendelmin, while their other sister lay almost at the point of death standing and his two companions wished to have them in their possession themselves, but Violet and her sisters were sold separately to different masters Augustinus St Clare bought Jennie - brutalized her - beyond description and her many - women

 - killed her - turned any where and - left her for dead - for days until Jack Evans found her.
 The others were also - brutalized though one of the masters
 - being touched finally
 - became his little slave
 - friend and - married her out of Leo Glendel
 - linam a little after I met - standing and his companions. He confessed that they went the cause of the abduction - but
 - standing - Charles and
 - these good men

Glendelmin are full of treachery, worse than the meanest snake and toach I wanted them with my possession, for the general intention to find out their true character, and instead of that they are sold - separately to different masters who are more brutal than the worst devils in hell.
 I believe them to be what is said about them make me an enemy to be sure but this treachery will not stand for and I know where they were taken to, and believe me I know their guard
 - knows it too for I have told him by note - so - keep me God will - have my revenge. I find one that they and not what is said about them I'll clear the Glendelmin crime. Oh God - how I hate! - mainly and his wicked generals.
 I'll see to it that I'll see to it
 that I'll see to it
 that I'll see to it in account of suspecting them to be spies had to be harsh toward them, though it almost broke his heart to do it.

But now things are changing. Stanning and some of his companions even suspect the Mamleys is treacherous enemies of the Virians men who are plotting their destruction and trying to drag him and his companions to capture the Virian girls so that they may surely perish.

Stanning and his companions are angry mad as snakes and hate Mamley and his sons more than ever.
Instead of being hostile to the little girls as before they are becoming treacherous to Mamley and several times Stanning killed Violet and her sister, from being captured by the worse child
- enemy of all, Gen maney. Viriam so it is now seen why they are so hostile
Now seeing the dark treachery and treachery stanning and his companions are growing wiser, and are now bound to frustrate Mamley's plots at all costs. When General Stanning was almost the cause to General's death later he betrayed him and lost him uselessly into a deadly ambush.

Stanning himself told me how he caught on.

He and his companions were in Mamley's headquarters, in a cliff and room adjoining Mamley's.

I was "terribly surprised" he said to me. Mamley told the officer with him that he was using me and my two companions to bring down the Virian girls or to capture them and bring them to him so that he could butcher them.
I had him say this.

In truth those Virian girls are as righteous as saints, hate anything that is wicked, loved everybody with a true love whether they be enemies or friends, but that fool Stanning and his fool companions do not know

and at all, I have impressed upon the minds of those three Yamacolinian boy scouts, that those Virran girls are their most dangerous enemies traitors to their own country fake Christians and that sometimes they pretend to spy on us, are chased to the Christian lines but get for us information from the Christian troops.

Those two boys Friedrich and Dungen fell for it first then they turned fighting against the Virran girls. It is a good joke I should say. On account of the cleverness of these three lads those Virran girls have suffered just as I want them to suffer, and some day when the chance comes I will destroy those Virran girls without warning and strike us suddenly as a rattlesnake. There were many things that he said that convinced me and my companions that he and the other wicked generals had tricked us in a most treacherous manner and so we shook hands and vowed that we would never be scouts our innocent victims as they had been no more, and instead would warn them of every danger that we knew was threatening them.

Planning himself sometimes during the fourth year of the war, led Federal and Confederate into an ambush, and though these two wicked generals escaped, Flanning fortunately happened to be in disguise and one of the Yamacolinian soldiers, an officer knew who he really was.

I have been with the Virran girls a good many times. I have read constantly "Uncle Tom's Cabin," especially poor little Eva, but the Virran girls are more spiritual in their ways more innocent, holy and righteous, and are apparently happy and cheerful despite all the misery they went through. Eva had passed through a life of care, sorrow and happiness together, the only sorrow being our the condition of the new slavery. But poor Violet and her sisters, what a lot them? They themselves experienced a world of sorrow and misery. Jack Evans who has heard all, saw most of it, and saw their condition many a time, is so cold and quiet that it seems as if he cared nothing about it.

But in his heart there is burning a fierce anger, a anger that is extremely dangerous and some day will be aware no Glandelinism. He is going to explode like a mighty volcano - being swamped inside by the sea and then all Glandelinians will rather go to perdition than face his indescribable fury.

He has scourged one man for brutalizing the Virian girls already disabled many other gray coats for even slight offences and this shows the fire of hatred and rage of that is burning within his bosom.

There is always a kind of flash in his eyes that even makes general Virian turn his face in fear at that face Evans is really as I would call it a guardian angel in human form.

No total harm can come to the Virian girls while they are under his care, and though many attempts have been made, they have been frustrated with terrible fury. Jack Evans before he learned to know them had been a hard worked child slave since he was seven years old, and instead of the work hard as it was causing him harm it made him grow up a strong powerful man, and many a time I saw him carrying a 2000 pound gun over his bare shoulders which 300 horses and 200 men could not even drag and push up a hill of gentle grade.

So what Glandelinian skunk can hope to cope with him successfully, even if he be armed to the teeth. Evans has faced a rain of bullets many times without being injured.

So was him at close quarters three hundred Glandelinians could not do it even with weapons without having to shoot him.

It was on November the fourteenth 1911, that though the terrible war is still raging, I have on account of the loss of the picture of the Aronburg child, who was murdered by one of the Tamerlanes or Federals, that I have 'though still a correspondent, quit taking in accounts of the many battles already past since March and those now raging.

There are four already raging, four terrible battles. They are the battles of Tseuilligen, Moriarty, Pagaza and Kucklemann, all Ungol-Indian victories. Having received a wound at Virginia Run while taking in the accounts of the terrible battle of the raging I am not able until probably two months from November 30, to January 31 to resume the accounts.

I have risked much in taking in the accounts of many of the battles, now past I narrowly escaped capture at Big Smith, Bushy Run, and Shiloh.

I have either for two or three battles, seen the actual child Aronburg in her spirit. During the battle of Marcella, some second battle, I mean, the Glandelinian storm of Marcella was coming on with a fury that knew no bounds.

Impossible to stand the frightful noise and the terrible annihilating roar of musketry. A high earnest shrieked my very heart, and I almost forgot to get the scene as quickly as I could.

Just as I reached Germico bridge, near Marcella, I was suddenly aware of a person following me.

I thought I took no part in the frightful war, only being a war correspondent, I nevertheless had great dread of the Glandelinian soldiery. Though I did have like warm sympathy for their cause because of the loss.

Drawing my pistol I suddenly wheeled upon my follower intending to shoot without hesitation as I expected no mercy from any Glandelinian who would suspect me as an Angelinian spy.

so my consideration I beheld before me a little girl, the very likeness of the one in the picture I lost I lost all my fears then but said rather seriously:

"Little one it ain't polite to scare a person like that.
I thought you was a sticking Glandelinian following me - "Who are you, and what do you want?"

"My name is Annie Armburg" she answered to my further consideration couldn't you for my sake withdraw the curse on the Christians because of your loss?"

I answered:
"Don't know about that.
It ain't my doing, and you ought to know

she begged me persistently but the more she pleaded and teased the more I refused. She then grew angry and told me that sticking for the enemies of our Lord was an act of sacrilegious treason to God, that by remaining so, I would never obtain the manuscript or picture that I lost and
"the thing" was really a wicked man to refuse the gift the begged of me" I said:

"Don't talk to me like that you little womanly scamp," and attempted to seize her to give her a shaking up, but no one was there as a large tree was standing, just a foot from me, I quickly ran around it expecting that she had dashed from behind it but she was not there. I looked everywhere but in vain.

She was gone! My didn't I feel queer. I left the spot as quickly as possible, feeling the guilt of having injured a celestial being for days and days while out on various battle fields I expected to see her again.

I did at Shelantoburg after, first being pursued by the Glandelinians, and then by the Abbeem nians who mistook me for a Glandelinian soldier on account of my gray uniform. I escaped them both.

I may have been thirty or forty years from me Wollaston River, when the same little girl, dressed all in white with hands outstretched toward me pleadingly and swinging back and forth as light as a breeze her curly yellow hair looking yet more yellow in the afternoon sun, suddenly appeared almost under my horse's feet.

My white horse had been used by families with small children, so long that she instantly stopped without me telling her to, casting her eyes down toward the child and pricking up both ears.

I suddenly cried to her, "Why were under the sun did you come from in such a storm of distant battle as this?"

The nearest house wrecked by a high explosive was half a three leagues away, and I know there were no children there.

I then decided to ride along side of her and pick her up, but I never did, for as soon as the horse started, the child started too with the same quivering motion, and I just saw the little ahead of the horse and looking back over her shoulder, reproachfully at me. I never thought at the time how impossible it would be for a child to go so fast.

The horse never took its eye off the little girl and neither did I. She ran on until she came near to a farm, went through the fence, and sat down facing me, frowning and pointing a threatening finger at me.

When I came pretty close I dismounted, the child suddenly darting diagonally across the road to a telegraph pole, the wires being down, and ran around, peering out from the other side at me, this pole being located in the corner of a wheatfield.

I hurried after the child whom she ran around the pole, crying out, "Why you little scamp, don't you think I can catch you?" and I made a dive around the pole only to find her looking so threateningly at me that I did not have the nerve to touch her.

 "Do not dare touch me you friend of the Glandelionians" she screamed you refused my request, and yet by making you follow me, I saved your life. I now where you first stood a mine had been exploded by your would be friends."

I didn't answer but drew back my salve to flourish it toward her, but only to find empty air. Not a thing in sight, not even a bird or cloud to make a shadow.

I waited excitedly for her to reappear, for I couldn't imagine what had happened. The wheat had been cut and shocked by the Glandelionian farmers according in this region. But the nearest shock was a long way to the pole, and the little girl couldn't possibly have got to the shock without me seeing her.

I looked and looked, but never discovered a trace of anything. No one can describe my feelings which I had. I fully believed that she had been murdered and that God had allowed her spirit to appear before my and that I had very much influenced her request, but God as well after this occurrence I continued my work and though I now forgot about her, I was more determined to recover her picture or another one like it.

It was the day when I was at a safe distance watching the crushing onslaught of the Concentinians curvally, against the Omarians at McWhither's Burn. (I had a similar experience)

I had been riding toward the McWhither Burn, when I thought sure I heard her call me. though however her voice seemed far away and weak.

I'm looking toward the place waters of the river I thought sure I saw the beautiful child in the water with lily pads all around her.

All I could see was her face her eyes so large and such an imploring look in them, and her arms extended as if beckoning me to come.

she was slowly sinking in the water and all but her face had disappeared.

I rode hastily toward the river intending to wade in and draw her out of the water when to my utter astonishment I saw her on the road beckoning to me to come away from the isles I was now flabbergasted than ever.

Was it really the child's spirit still persistent in her request? No I obeyed her call I feet touched in spite of myself. I rode up close to her expecting her to dart away like she did before, but this time she came right up to me with a look of reproach in her eyes.

This time she told me that a great struggle in the war, was soon coming, a terrible battle at Glouinid or Anonburg Run, and she begged me earnestly to keep away from it as I would not be safe any longer, as I did not grant her request.

I answered, "My child I realize now my mistake, in being hard to you. But I swear before God that I have one way to grant your request. And that I will tell you, and do if you will reveal to me why you appear to me and disappear in such a mysterious fashion." She looked at me at this and then said,

"I told you before who I am. I'm Annie Anonburg. I was cruelly murdered by Guy and Richardson Federal he came

Richardson Federal he came

I was a leader of the rebel, Anderson who returned against our mission, to give our freedom from slavery and misery as you was the one who had saved my father, and many the children were belonging to me, I had lost that as you alone have the situation of both sides in your power, I decided to appeal to you to avenge my assassination on the poor Union girls will have to lie for me to save their nation and fathers armies from complete ruin and defeat at the hands of their gladiatorial enemies.

You refused my request until I appealed a second time, and this is the time if you refuse this time all will be lost, for the foe will be victorious.

I answered that I would do my best, to do all that she requested but that I must under any conditions recover the picture first that I was not an enemy of God or of the poor Angelinians, and that the return of the picture must be so forthcoming to bring about the success of the Christians. I had in the meantime continued on my way slowly the child following, when just as I was going to speak again

I was started by the men's approach of battle. I then looked around, but she was gone. The fourth time I met her and the last was at Wrenburgs Run. I had my witnessed all its surpassing horrors.

She was attired as a civilian child this time only appearing a moment smiling at me and then was gone. I haven't seen her since, but I have now joined the Christian armies, am an officer, and have been leading one of the fiercest charges at Dogan Joe Rae Run.

I have known Gertrude Angeline since the night she was born at Crowley. She has seen the Crowley picture many often and declared to me that the murdered child resembles Angeline Vivian a good deal.

My two losses have been very serious, but the loss of the Crowley picture has been the greatest, has caused the frightful disasters during the battles the torment of the Vivian girls and the frightful fury of the great war.

Violet and her six sisters Jennie, Joice, Angeline, Lottie and Catherine, Daisy, are very young children even at the fourth years duration of the bloody war, and at their age, it is impossible how they could have stood all they went through and lived.

I was believed that at the first crash of the war had their father sent them immediately to Albionia, they could have escaped all this but truly there was no chance what even of their getting to Albionia at that critical time and he saw wisely that there was infinitely more safety for his scanty little daughters if they went off under protection of the Angeline armies and under the Guardianship of King Gannon, their friend and adviser, Jack Horns Evans. He is worth while to be their guardian, for he is a young Hercules a champion prize fighter before he knew the Vivian girls, a champion wrestler, swimmer and a champion horseback rider. He is also a sharpshooter with rifle, pistol and even cannon. It also has been somewhat

Marching Through Calaveras

Bring the good old English boys we're singing along with a spirit that will start the world along singing it as we used to sing it, fifty million years ago while we were marching through Calaveras.

2 How the children shivered when they heard the music sound from the candles bobbed, which our commissioners found how the happy children even started from the miles
while we were marching through Calaveras.

3 Yes and there were Christian children who weep with joyful tears.
When they saw the bannered flag, they had not seen for years.
Hardly could they be restrained, from breaking forth in shouts
while we were marching through Calaveras.

4 Banners, flashing Christian boys will never reach the coast
So the sunny candles said, and was a handsome town, but they not forgot also to reach with the light
while we were marching through Calaveras.

Chorus

Idem! Idem! we bring the jubilee, Idem! Idem! the flag that makes them free So we sang the chorus, from Calaveras to the sea,
while we were marching through Calaveras.

5 So we made a thoroughfare for children and their train sixty miles in latitude, three hundred to the main treasure field before us, for resistance was in vain
while we were marching through Calaveras.

Idem! Idem! Idem!

1 In the prison cell they sat thinking mother about you, and their bright and happy home so far away and the tears and gas their eyes, while of all that they can do, though they tried

In the battle front they stood, when their bravest army was made, and they do off a million men in more, but before they reached our shores they were broken back, dismayed, and they heard the cry of victory over all.

3 So within the prison cell, they are waiting for the day, when with the iron bar shall come to open wide the iron door, the sudden eye grew bright, and the face turned almost as gay, as they think of seeing home and friends no more.

Idem! Idem! Idem! the boys are marching, and their up children they will come, and beneath the sunny flag, you shall breathe the air again of the freedom in our own beloved home.

1
 Yes they'll rally round the flag boys, They'll rally again and again, Raging the mighty battle for freedom,
 We did charge up the hillside, We stormed from the plain,
 Raging the mighty battle for freedom,
 Chorus
 The Calverine forever, I'll stand by March, Down with the traitors, on with the Charge,
 While we rally round the flag Boys
 Rally again and again, Raging the mighty battle for Freedom

We are springing to the call of our Brothers gone before, Raging the mighty battle of Freedom,
 And we fill the vacant ranks With a thrillion free men of the Glendaloughs was the sufferings of the Vinam girls and the main tragedies. Without any reason John Manley persecuted them at home, imprisoned them for months, and tried to bring on their destruction but the clemency of a disguised Christian Jack Evans, who called himself Reigumy to hide his true character, saved them from the peril.

They were caught many times by the Glendaloughs, but never was the tragedy greater than when one of the Vinam girls suffered a shock from a bullet wound, and was lying helpless in bed, her sisters were carried off by the Glendaloughs and sold to different Glendaloughian child slave masters.

Not even poor "Uncle Sam", in "Uncle Sam's Cabin", suffered as they did at the hands of their cruel masters. Jennie had a cruel master and at would be too shocking to relate what she suffered there.

Evans looking for her finally found her in an old abandoned barn more like a bleeding corpse than a living saintly little child that she was.

Evans was broken-hearted over her condition and he brought his wife back with her sisters after being forced widely by the crazed Glendaloughs. They suffered many cruel forced labors after that, were nearly killed at Brigams by mines.

Catherine Vinam got it as bad as Jennie and was found in the same condition as Jennie, at Cedarvale.

At Mary Mc Allister, Violet and her sisters were, with their guardian Jack Evans, captured by the Glendaloughs under General Francis Badden Smith.

He was a cruel man and, before Jack Evans, and to the enjoyment of his soldiers he struck Catherine and Jennie Vinam across the face with a rawhide whip, when Evans struck him down with a telling blow, breaking the nasal bone.

A month Evans and the Vinam girls were held prisoners, then Evans was brought before the irate general. "You unseparate rattlebrakes, you'll suffer for the blow you struck me," he roared. "I'll put you to death by hanging you for making rattlebrakes!"

When he was being brought back, Evans by his superhuman strength overcame his guards.

with the Viriam girls and escaped to the Christian lines after being pursued for a hundred miles.

Three days later during the battle at Bucklebury, though the Gos were victorious and the Christians beaten, Francis

Budden Smith was captured and brought before Evans

Evans gave him a pygmy's look and said:

"General Smith, because I and the little Viriam girls were prisoners in your foul hands you called me a pygmy's little snake. Well I am one — anyhow you hear no rattling now. I brought all this war

Violet and her sisters suffered at the hands of your dirty Glandelinian cur, cats fides, and gutter-snipes who lay in the mud of the pigs and hogs and three of them nearly died of — were they say it was the agency of the damned, at Cederburn.

And all of them narrowly escaped death at Brigano.

You're a prisoner now in my hands, General Francis and I'm going to make you know how it feels to be strong.

You'll pay dearly for the blows you struck Catherine and Dominic across the great Christian valley at Maul Orlow.

just you snatched from I'm a man who never forgets, or forgives such men as you. You people call the Viriam girls the meanest names, when you were them three months themselves I'm free now, General Francis, and you're not, and I guess I've learned to rattle snake all right both out when I strike."

Evans knew that the Viriam girls had been persecuted hundreds of times without reason on account of their Christian ways I suppose and which has angered Evans to the utmost limit. Evans had kept all the accounts of what the Viriam girls had suffered, and every time he would glance over the accounts he'd almost lose his temper.

When Port Evans recounted it all, all the long working habred of his very soul toward the wicked Gland elinian worms and soldiers, began to gather in a deadly and desperate form, load not the Glandelinians treated the Viriam girls like the very devils torment the damned despite their leaving them steadily, powerfully, resolutely I know, hell at all.

[illegible]

he found little Jerome lying on a bleeding corpse, with last marks on his face neck and chin, almost lifeless, lingering tortures, as that night in the child's room of plantation overseen by Francis Augustus it came and cleared of the glandularium when it found fire was advancing despite all efforts to check it.

Was there not a spell on him which silent like it was burned on him like the flames of punishment and were not the victim girls suffering the tortures of the damned after the Bregano affair would not the readers of the story witnessing in details the sufferings of the victim girls have sympathy for the poor little thing, even more nearly had been a man of all tempers, he had always been cheerful, even singing gaily, always singing and never a harsh word out of him hardly to any one. At the sight of the misery of the victim girls he no longer was angry to the degree which despite his superhuman efforts to check this growing angry temper and finally he could not hold it no longer and as he sat up in bed he was heard to say, by the little girls themselves "I hate them! I hate them! I hate and I hate them! Don't those little girls mine to protect, body and soul? Can't I do what I like and make them all happy when it's my duty to do so?" "Who's the glandularium wadded skunk to hinder ~~the~~ I wonder?" and he was seen to clench his fists like his wrists in a rage shake his fists in the air and grind his teeth as if he had something in his hands that he could rend in pieces.

Powerful.

Abreannia.

By Gathude Angelina.

When the Abreannian nation was first discovered, it was found to be a very good nation, righteous in all ways, but that it knew not God. But then the Abreannians did not worship images of stone, but believed in two great spirits, "the unknown" and the demon.

They were spiteful toward the evil one, and faithful to the unknown. Even strangers who believed in God, the Abreannians harbored, and befriended, under conditions that they did not interfere with the religion of the Abreannians, and those who did, were not persecuted or put to death, and told respectively that they were trespassing lands not belonging to them, and that they must go back to their own country.

Mighty Christian nations had waged sixty to seventy wars against Abreannia to bring her under submission to the Christian religion.

but waging war against Abreannia was like a crippled child trying to slay a giant and among one of those 100 Christian nations were vanquished by Abreannians, their countries seized and made an Abreannian province. No massacres of the armies or peoples of the conquered nations occurred, the people being only made subjects to Abreannia, but the finished Abreannians peculiar religion with so many Christian people among them allowed to retain their religions without any objection of any kind, the religion became contagious. King Dacia the Abreannian king at that time caught it first, the people being surprised but not objecting.

At this time Abreannia had Angelina, Dandacia, Dapole, Yindia, Ulysses, Mermonia, and Ulysses, and Pootia, and as strong Christian allies, great friends at that, who never wavered with Abreannia, and at this time Abreannia was called Evangelina. At the time the king died, Glandelina had been a part of Abreannia, ally, Angelina had rebelled, won, broke away and became a free nation. At the same time, Dacia and Dapole, Yindia, and Ulysses had associated to Abreannia on account of the Glandelinian disturbances and Abreannian became a mighty power to all the world and a Christian nation. Five kings came and died, Abreannian was more Christian like than ever, and a nation that was the mightiest of them all.

Then came the reign of King Santa Anna Procle Glandelin. At this time was a wilful enemy of God. Had robbed the weaker nations, to make himself a power, had stolen Calvernia from Angelina and erected child slavery of the most horrible kind.

- King Procle had a wife with almost the features of the Blessed Virgin Mary and two of the loveliest children a beautiful boy and a girl.

The little boys name was Prince Gamma and the little girl was Princess Gamma.

During the meanwhile the Calvernia in the year of 1888 had started a rebellion against Glandelin and suffering and misery that set in was frightful. The King of Abreannia had innocently complained of the conduct of the Glandelinians in Calvernia but terrible occurrences were to follow. On November 27 1891

The King wife Marie Procle and his daughter took three thousand Abreannian children on an excursion ship for a picnic. She had done much in lending help to Calvernia and Glandelin desired revenge.

That very same day toward the evening when the children were having their happiness singing and playing and enjoying the best time when suddenly the ship was cut in two by the explosion of a torpedo, and the ship sunk so fast with all on board that there was no time to even launch a boat and all found a watery grave.

The Abreannian King was frustrated, and killed by the shock of the news. His son was broken hearted, and the nation was wild with rage. The Abreannian government demanded an explanation for the deed and the excuse was that a submarine, flying the Angelina flag did the deed. A black and evil lie.

However the Ultracommunist nation was an, out in clearness. Angelina had no submarines at that time while Glandelinia did.

The first thing Glandelinia knew, was the frightful destruction of the wharves by the Ultracommunist warships. Pouring as of a mighty flood, the Ultracommunist armies into Calvernia and within four months all the biggest Glandelinian armies were swept clean out of Calvernia with the most frightful disunion, and not only that, but mighty Ultracommunist armies were moving greenish paths through Glandelinia and pouring toward their Capital city like an inevitable tidal wave. Battles by hundreds had been fought with the Ultracommunists never losing a one. In every battle they carried all before them.

But Ruin was very close. When the Ultracommunists lay down everything in waste. Glandelinia had reckoned with out the fact, she resisted the Ultracommunist for five ten years in vain. Ultracommunist never lost a battle. Eight times the Ultracommunists had siege to the main Capital, only to withdraw in account of being hand pressed by fire and by their own comrades to devastate Glandelinia. On March 1880 the city was besieged and stormed by the Ultracommunist armies. The fire along the Ultracommunist line was terrific. A general destruction raged in Glandelinia. The city was laid in ruins amid inconceivable slaughter. The Glandelinian generals seeing the ruthless slaughter and destruction offered to surrender, but General Pimentel, March beseeching the city refused to accept the surrender.

A frightful catastrophe would have occurred to Glandelinia had not the other nations started a mediation. So Ultracommunist did not conclusion the wished nation as she intended, but released the prisoners taken and fined the Glandelinian nation $100,000,000 in Ultracommunist money. It has now been a long time since the frightful frightful Glandor-Abrahamian war of 1844. Angelina for four years has clashed with Glandor since herself. Abrahamia is watching like a hawk watches its prey. The minister King Gannon gives the word Glandor will again be devastated. It was King Gannon who suffered the most, made an orphan by the tragedy, and losing three that were most dear to him - even when the Virginia girls were with him, nothing they said or done could make him smile. He remembers all what he suffered and is not only broken hearted, but wild with rage. He does not know that his best friend Governor General Vinnam and his Angelinians are at stake. God help Glandor when he does. Abrahamia has helped the Angelinians cause some what, but this was only a light blow on Glandor's cheek compared to what will come. It is believed that because it had its bad effects on the Angelinians the Abrahamian situation would have its bad effects on Abrahamia too but if believed so it cannot be confirmed. There is no nation that ever liked Abrahamia in her history whether good or bad, and not even Glandor who fought and lost four wars with her. There is no reason to believe that the failure of the atonement of the Abrahamian murder concerns disaster to Abrahamia, though it does to her allies in the great war now raging. Abrahamia alone can revenge the many massacres of Christian children, the Abrahamian assassinations, and save Angelina from the ruin and discoloration which is threatening her at every hand. Abrahamia could take Glandor's country from her entirely any time she sets her mind upon it and she would have in 1856 if the other Christian nations abhorring the destruction of Glandor did not meddle with the Abrahamian King Francis Mc Allister, who adopted Prince Gannon. It took five months for the nations to prevent the disaster too. Mc Allister's uncle was King Proclius like as they are, I don't see how whatever, the so-called Glandelinians could treat them the way they do. All of them were alive.

But then if the so-called were forward enough to shoot at the statue of the Blessed Virgin, as one confessed, who is more beautiful than even the Virgin girls, and who had a still greater sorrow, they surely could take pleasure, in torturing children, more prettier than the Virgin girls themselves, if there are any such children.

What I have seen Violet and her sisters suffer, during this war, makes me feel that Glandelinia should have been wiped out in 1841 by Abbeannia, then spared as she was.

Those nations that pleaded with Abbeannia to spare Glandelinia, were the biggest fools in earth.

If I had been General of Abbeannia and the mediators would have been brought before me to mediate for Glandelinia, I would have shot them down like dogs.

It is a good idea that Angelinia retains all the prisoners she had captured, in order to free them without pay, and even under the lash to rebuild the ruins of the Latin cities, repair the desolated fields and farms, and clear away the wreckage of forests.

This work as I know is already under way, and not only that, but by the strict laws of the Abbeannian governments now in Calvernia, the Glandelinian prisoners are forced to furnish men to build the ruined cities damaged even by the Angelinians.

This, I presume is the greatest punishment that any Glandelinian prisoners ever suffered and it is well deserved and I declare that this government ought to make slaves of the Glandelinian prisoners for all time, instead of the duration of the war, and the time it takes to rebuild the ruins.

In fact the Abbeannian governments are now clean through, over all the massacres of children that occurred, and the wanton destruction in Calvernia, and have several times inflicted general Union that to their idea Abraham ought to intervene, that Angelina will never win, without intervention, and that Abraham would force extreme measures upon the Glandelinian government.

Besides the past treatment of the poor Virgin girls, has maddened me so far that I am to the Glandelinian prisoners in my possession, as a bulldog would be to a strange cat, let alone a familiar one.

I hate the very sight of a Glandelinian and the sooner I get him out of my sight, to be shot, or put in the internment camp the better it was for me.

Glandelinia has done a lot that should be atoned for, and will if she wants to preserve herself from total destruction. We win and when we will.

And to close this interview I will say for the last time that Glandelinia shall pay us clear, and what more all I demand that belongs to her shall now belong to Abraham as soon as will is won, and no Glandelinian will ever be allowed to cross the Angelinian boundary again. Though when the war is over Glandelinia will never be forgiven for the murder of children, the wanton destruction in Calvernia, and the unjust misery of the poor Virgin girls.

The first part of the paper is devoted to the study of the asymptotic behavior of the solutions of the system (1) for large values of the parameter ϵ . It is shown that the solutions of the system (1) can be represented in the form of an asymptotic expansion in powers of ϵ^{-1} . The coefficients of this expansion are determined by solving a sequence of boundary value problems. The first problem is a linear problem, while the subsequent problems are nonlinear. The asymptotic expansion is valid for $\epsilon \rightarrow \infty$ uniformly in t and x .

THE BATTLE

OR

IT IS SUSPECTED THAT THE BATTLE

CONCERNED

The total number of battles won by the various Glandelinian armies, consisting of the Gummamarians, Omandans, Omandans, Candel Kinds, Conclandians, the Dandelinians, and Gargolians number about ninety two, while fifty more were lost.

There were fifteen battles considered undecided, or drawn and which makes altogether one hundred sixty six that had been fought before the battle of Gloria Zoe Run.

There were three hundred eighty Glandelinian generals mortally wounded, eight hundred eighty four killed and one hundred eighty one severely, dangerously, or slightly wounded, making a total of three thousand four hundred thirty four in killed, wounded and captured.

More losses in officers of all ranks were about fifty thousand, two hundred twenty two.

It is probable that the whole Glandelinian linian loss in killed and wounded up to the battle of Gloria Zoe Run, including those taken as prisoners, is four hundred seven million seven hundred eight thousand, four hundred sixty six.

There are also many battles where the Glandelinians also lost several in the extreme but these battles have been so exceedingly fierce that the losses have either been withheld or are not correctly known.

Gloria Zoe Run and Anna-Maria still raging are not included in the list as yet.

The battle of Anna-Maria is quite near as violent as Gloria but probably will rage for three days in duration.

It started along the left wing of the Christian line where General Raymond R. Hanson Federal's combined forces made a desperate assault knowing the Christian forces into confusion by a vigorous flanking movement. It is probable that a serious disaster would have occurred had it not been for the arrival of Granados' army which broke the enemy's advance and then turned and threw back the Gladiolusian forces with the incursion of their chief commander, Dechard.

Manley had also delivered a fierce battle attack on the Christian center and the Granados also had the effect of throwing into confusion forward the enemy's line. The enemy's and while hundreds of persons were killed, wounded and mangled and bleeding or trying to rally their shattered divisions Granados was ordered to the rescue and his whole line pressed on a sudden simultaneous charge line up to the enemy's line for the rescue and the high columns were thrown to pieces their shattered columns rolled again and again and would have won the field

line vigorously repulsed,

THE BATTLE OF

The Gundelinsians despite the rising fury of thousands of Christian artillery which pounded seemingly everything to pieces kept side by side in great masses doing no more for the showers of Christian shells and high explosives than if they had been showers of rain.

With stupendous loss the Christians were hurled back with shattered column no. but whole lines rushed forward again and again only to die by thousands in five minutes.

Their machine guns stormed the Gundelinsian center but their force was swept to pieces and the Boadicea later Gaul and any heavy shell mortally wounded. The Christian columns fought to the last in that bloody battle storm killing in such great numbers that the whole of the Christian army was annihilated.

the columns rushed upon the Gundelinsians only to be vanquished with great slaughter.
General Scott on the Christian side was killed and so was Dignolia and Corolla.
While Calonia and Severus were mortally wounded over when millions of the Christian hostmen were against the Gundelinsians the Gundelinsian cannon moved over and horses down an such frightful numbers that they lay in an impenetrable wilderness.

Then the whole Christian force started to give way only a little while now the battle was so close that the very flames appeared to burst into flame and down a storm of death and destruction descended upon the Gundelinsians over the seemed to turn to fire the shells seemed to be on fire upon a sea of smoke the valleys seemed to become channels of flame the burning garments of the earth seemed to wither and fly off in the fiery blast of cannon and exploded long storm of shells of every calibre and so terrific was the din that scores of thousands and of the soldiers went insane from it.

At the moment the glancelinians began to give way the glancelinians pressed forward like a whirling storm wave of men but the angelinians reinforced by other portions of the main body turned to face the glancelinians one more large force of Christian cavalry divided the pressing body of the glancelinians from the rest and thus all the four most potent of the glancelinian army sixteen million in number fell before the angelinians would surrender.

The main body of the glancelinians still remained firm leaders of the halting storm of the Christian cannon and with their own cannon cut down the multitude of Christians as the harvesters would do the wheat.

General Vancina after several hours pretended to be recreating the high glancelinians following but the Christian armies only closed again and fell upon the glancelinians with great slaughter.

General Becknell Turner was wounded with a bullet in the eye chopped and many of his officers were already killed or wounded.

General Jackson manly seeing that his forces were advancing ordered a general advance which was in full swing in the afternoon.

But this gigantic attack was useless. Fourteen onslaughts were made only to be cut down and he was compelled to withdraw.
